"Testing Required" means Premium Metal-Guard stretch film will usually protect this metal type. However, Daubert Cromwell always recommends corrosion testing prior to actual use.

SHELF LIFE

12 months, from date of shipping. This shelf life statement is only valid for product stored in the original shipping container used by Daubert Cromwell. Storage outside that container and at high humidity and above 80°F voids this statement.

Standard in Daubert® blue, 1 mil thickness. Other colors and gauges available upon request. Contact your local Daubert Cromwell distributor or the Daubert Cromwell customer service center for details.
